Hello, I'm investigating a man called Andy Leher who claims to have a possible lead on missing Doctor Who and The Goon Show episodes. He is a man from Canada like yourself and uses this Twitter: @AndyLehrer . In your opinion is this the same man who sent you the threatening messages?

It's the same Twitter account, yes. Fascinating Story you're working on, but I wouldn't trust the guy further than I could throw him (and he's seriously overweight)
